KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

You have the right to organize a protest

- You can protest in public areas like streets, sidewalks, or parks without a permit, if it doesn't obstruct traffic or activities.
- Larger protests require a permit if streets are blocked, loudspeakers are used, or if it will obstruct activities.
 - Contact your local city hall for this.
- Assign designated roles for the protest, such as legal observers and safety patrols.

You have the right to participate in a protest

- You have the right to free speech, but without inciting violence or unlawful behavior
- You have the right to take photos and videos of things in a public space that are clearly visible.
- Counter-protestors have the right to be present, and it is the responsibility of the group to avoid engagement.
- DO NOT initiate or join in physical fights.

You have rights with law enforcement

- If stopped or detained, remain calm and DO NOT resist.
- Show your ID and identify yourself, but you are NOT obligated to answer any additional questions.
- Either record the interaction if you can or have someone else record it.
- Be sure to note the officer's badge number, name & ask for witnesses.
- If you are arrested, exercise your right to remain silent, ask for a lawyer, & contact CAIR-FL for assistance!
